

Constrained Optimization Using Lagrange Multipliers

TOR SERCAN
308466

AGH University of Science and Technology

What Are Lagrange Multipliers Used For

- To optimize a function on a given constraint.

Constrained Optimization

Maximize $f(x,y) = x^2y$

on the set $\underbrace{x^2 + y^2 = 1}_{\text{unit circle}}$

